

PRIVATE SHOW CASE For Art Shopping

Thursdays December 12th & 19th, 2013
11am - 9pm

Hosted by VeroDalla
129^E 27th street, Apt 2F, NY 10016.

New York, NY – PRIVATE SHOW CASE for Art Shopping is a concept developed by an eclectic group of artists to reconnect with Art lovers and collectors. The Art shopping is hosted each time by a different artist who opens his or her studio in New York, allowing other artists to exhibit their artworks as well and offering to the public different kind of arts from sculpture to paintings, fashion to goodies or even lighting.

The next following Thursdays, VeroDalla, French artist known for her LivenLuLu and her poppies' sculpture will open her Art Studio to 3 other artists: Roman Keflay, fashion designer, Christine Galvez, lighting creator and Dominique Jaussein, photographer.

Two great arguments to stop by:

- APPEALING PRICES: the artists deal for themselves, no middle-man.
- THE PRIVILEGE OF INTERACTING WITH THE ARTISTS in the intimacy of an Art studio. It's not an opening; it's not a gallery; only fascinating and passionate human beings welcoming you in their place, in their home, in a very warm and friendly ambiance to show you the best of themselves: their creations.
